

Australian Society for Fish Biology Grant Application Form

Find the person to fax or email your award application to at:
<http://www.asfb.org.au/awards/award-contacts/>

(please copy and complete in Word or Pdf editor over hand-written applications)

Project title: _____

Applicant/s: _____

Affiliation: _____

Contact details - email: _____ phone: _____

Species – list the taxon or taxa and the relevant (a) ASFB listing and (b) legislative conservation status (if any):

Region and site – list the specific location/catchment/nearest towns of project:

Project duration – typically less than one year: _____

Is the project part of a larger study/program? If so give details:

Background (<250 words) – what is the problem and conservation context:

Project Budget – amount sought and breakdown of expenditure:

Item with details	Amount
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
Add rows if necessary

Other funding – please list other related funding or current applications (value adding is encouraged):

Information sources – please detail journal papers or reports that will help inform your project:

Declaration. Please tick appropriate box:

	I am a current member of ASFB (to check login to the website – www.asfb.org.au)
	Primary applicant is a student
	The target species is/are listed on the ASFB Threatened Fishes list, or this application is accompanied by a nomination to the Threatened Fishes Committee (liaise with a committee member from your jurisdiction, list available in the ASFB Newsletter).
	One or more grant applicants are current State or Territory representatives on the ASFB Threatened Fishes Committee
	I have read and understand the grant conditions and judging process